

Haiku Contest 2017

Student Haiku Contest 2017

Application Period January 1~March10, 2017

Eligibility : Any teachers can enter his or her students' haiku poems

(We have discontinued the former eligibility requirement of attending an instructional workshop.
This contest is open for every teacher who wants to enter.)

Regulations: Only poems that have not been previously published or submitted to a contest are eligible. Each student may submit up to three haiku, but no teacher may submit more than 40 poems from his or her students.

Submissions : Fill in the entry form (Teacher's name, School name, Telephone #, E-mail, Total number of submissions)

Sheet : 8 1/2" x 11" paper: one sheet for one poem

Attach a typewritten student information label on the back: No name on the front.

(Student's name, School name, grade-level, teacher's name)

Divisions: English (4 divisions)

Elementary (1-5), Middle School English (6-8), High School (9-12), Teacher division

Japanese (4 divisions)

Elementary (1-5), Middle School English (6-8), High School (9-12), Teacher division

Other Languages (Arabic, Italian, French, Spanish and Other)

No division

Awards Ceremony & Reception: June 3, 2017 @ UNiS- Lobby

Venue : United Nations International School

Submission Office : Student Haiku Contest

c/o United Nations International School

Japanese Program

24-50 FDR Drive, New York, NY 10010

Further questions : nectjapanese @gmail.com

Tel: 212-696-1347(Japanese Program)

Organizers: UNiS Japanese Program, UNiS English Department & Northeast Council of Teachers of Japanese (NECTJ)

Sponsors : Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations, United Nations International School, Kodansha America Inc., Kodansha International, Japan Publications, Japan Trading & Japan Foundation