

HSA 2004 Fourth Quarterly Meeting Seattle, Wash., December 3–5, 2004

[as reported in the HSA Newsletter, Vol. XX, No. 1, February 2004]

The HSA December Quarterly Meeting, hosted by the Northwest Chapter, was held in the Seattle area at the Redmond Public Library. The program consisted of workshops conducted by Pamela Miller Ness, on retrieving childhood images via sensory images; and by Michael Dylan Welch on the distinctions between haiku and senryu. Ruth Yarrow presented a paper on haiku in wartime. Poetry readings were presented by Michael McClintock, Dejah Leger, Dean Summers, and Carol Blackbyrd Edson. The HSA Sora Award for outstanding contributions to the society and to haiku was presented to Francine Porad.

II. Membership Information.

Renewals are coming in daily. As of 1/15/05, there are 451 renewals for 2005, 8 renewals through 2006, 1 renewal through 2007, 1 renewal through 2008, 1 renewal through 2011; 33 new members for 2005; 11 exchange and/or honorary members, bringing the total to 506. There are 355 members for 2004 who have not yet renewed. Thanks to the members who are renewing and encouragement to all others to renew as soon as possible.

Because HSA runs on a calendar year, Jan. 1–Dec. 31, those who did not renew by January 22, 2005 did not receive Frogpond XVIII:1 with the bulk mailing. Issues of Frogpond will be sent out to those who renew after that date by regular mail, which creates an additional postage expenditure for HSA. All those, however, who were members in 2004, unless they have specifically indicated that they have no intention of renewing, are receiving this issue of the Newsletter in hopes it will remind them to renew.

III. Gratitude

Over these past two years, I have received many notes and letters of support and thanks from members. I am unable to reply to each of you, but want you to know how very much I have appreciated your thoughtfulness in taking the time to encourage me.

Respectfully submitted,

—Karen Klein

Incoming Secretary's Message

Greetings to all I am pleased to be the HSA Secretary for 2005. I'm excited to be back in the USA (after 30 years in Japan) and be able to give back something to the HSA where I have been nurtured. The outgoing HSA Secretary, Karen Klein and I are working closely together during this transitional period. Therefore, if you sent your dues to her recently there is no problem.

I would like to point out the useful HSA Information 2005 sheet which is inserted in this Newsletter. You can find the HSA Quarterly Meetings for 2005, find out how to contact the HSA officers or your regional coordinators, and look up how to pay your dues, submit to various HSA supported contests, and submit to Frogpond. This will be a valuable source for all of 2005.

About those who have not renewed for 2005. Read the HSA 2005 Information sheet for the details on dues and how to send them to me. And you can also get this information on the HSA website at. <<http://hsa-haiku.org/hsa-join.html>>. There is even a membership form included on the website.

I hope to see many of you at the HSA Quarterly Meetings, and the HNA this year.
