1982 INFORMATION SHEET

The Haiku Society of America, Inc. (HSA) a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization, was established in 1968 to promote the writing and enjoyment of haiku in English. It sponsors open lectures, discussions, workshops, readings, and contests. Among numerous topics discussed in the past are the meaning of "nature," the influence of Zen, the use of punctuation and enjambment, linked verse, and the constitution and essence of haiku itself. Among speakers invited by HSA have been Cid Corman, poet and editor of Origin; Kenkichi Yamamoto, haiku critic; Sumio Mori, haiku poet; and Earl Miner, authority on classic Japanese poetry.

The HSA publishes a magazine, HSA FROGPOND, for which see below.

Board of Education in 1979, and a US/Canadian school contest in 1980. By right of a gift from the Museum of Haiku Literature, Tokyo, a new best-of-issue prize will be awarded for publication in FROGPOND.

Notice for 1982 HAROLD G. HENDERSON AWARD:

Deadline for this year's award submissions will be August 1, with an entry fee of $1 per haiku, a maximum of 3 haiku (unpublished) in only one entry, each haiku to be submitted in duplicate on 3 x 5 cards--one card with the haiku and with author's name and address in upper left-hand corner, and the other card with the haiku only for anonymous judging. (Sheets 8 1/2 x 11 will be discarded.) Contest open to the public.

Send submissions to President Geraldine C. Little at her home address, p. 1.

FROGPOND INFORMATION:

Frogpond is the regular publication of the Haiku Society of America. Its primary function is to present the best in contemporary English-language haiku, as well as linked poems and sequences. The magazine does not limit itself to any particular school of haiku. While most of its space is devoted to poetry, Frogpond also publishes book reviews and articles of a theoretical nature; news of the haiku world and HSA; relevant details for contests and awards; and listings of current haiku publications.

Frogpond is copyrighted by the HSA. Prior rights are retained by the authors, and all rights to new matter revert to the authors upon publication. Contributors are responsible for obtaining and supplying copyright permissions, and noting any matter which has been previously published. The magazine takes no responsibility for research errors; failure to acknowledge sources; or copyright infringements in the work of its contributors. No manuscripts will be returned without SASE.

Frequency of publication may vary between 4 and 2 issues a year, depending on the availability of funding. All efforts will be made to publish quarterly.

Frogpond welcomes submissions from members and non-members alike, but a fixed space is allotted to the work of HSA members. Linked poems and haiku sequences are welcome. When submitting articles, please bear in mind that our space is limited and that we cannot consider articles longer than 1,000 words.

Note: The editor will be moving as of Sept. 1, 1982. To avoid any possible interruptions, after that date (only), please send pertinent correspondence c/o 877 Norgate Dr., Ridgewood, N.J. 07450. The future address will be announced at a later date.
