

HAIKU SOCIETY OF AMERICA

The Haiku Society of America is a not-for-profit organization founded in 1968 to promote the writing and appreciation of haiku poetry in English. Membership is open to all readers, writers, translators, and students of haiku. With nearly 800 members worldwide, the HSA has been meeting regularly since its inception and sponsors open lectures, workshops, readings, and contests.

The society's journal, Frogpond, features work by HSA members and others, as well as articles and book reviews.

Membership includes a copy of the annual members' anthology.

Membership dues:

$35.00 for the U.S.

$37.00 for Canada and Mexico

$47.00 for all other areas (print publications membership)

$30.00 for seniors (age 65 and above)

$30 for full-time students in North America
